

Volunteers Needed

These animals need your help to find a home!

Sunday, August 14th, 8 AM - 7 PM, shifts available

At the "War Memorial Auditorium" in Ft. Lauderdale

We need volunteers on the day of the event, as well as a few people to help with special projects beforehand.

Volunteer positions on the day will include the following:

Parking attendants, program distributors, information tablers, runners, rafflers, booth relief people, food people, set up guides, and unload and loading helpers.

If you'd like to help the animals and work for a good cause, or if you need credits or have community service to perform, than this is your charity event!!!
